ADJOURNMENT

HERE will be a RECEPTION Tuesday Afternoon, November first, from three to six o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Conger, at Akron, Ohio, to which all are invited.

The distance between the towns of Akron and Barberton is short, and cars will be in waiting to take the guests back to the Inn for supper and the evening session of the Conference.

Barberton may be reached by Erie R. R., and by the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus Division of Penna. R. R., and also by Electric cars, the fare for Round Trip from Akron being Fifteen cents. The special rates given at Barberton Inn for this occasion are: $1 60 for one in a room; $1.50 for two in a room, per day, (including meals) and forty cents per single meal. Several hundred guests may be accommodated.

A special luncheon will be served in the dining room at noon recess on November second, for fifty cents per plate.

It should be remembered that the Ohio State Conferences are not delegated bodies. Every member of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the State has a right to a voice in the proceedings—and all are invited to attend.

The meetings of the Conference will be held in the parlors of the Inn.

Will the Chapter Regents please send, or bring, to the Ohio State Secretary, the latest program of their respective Chapters, from which to compile a State Directory and Report.

Former State Regents of Ohio.
